

“CHATGPT QUIET WONDER PROMPTS BY SAJAWAL CREATES”

Prompt No. 1: (Main Prompt)

Use the face from the reference image exactly — match this person's real facial features, structure, and identity while generating the image with the style, lighting, and composition described below.

Use the attached reference image as the identity reference. Preserve the exact facial identity, facial structure, eye shape, nose, lips, skin tone, hairstyle proportions, age, and overall likeness. No face drift, no identity changes.

Ultra-realistic cinematic travel portrait of the same super cute girl in Venice, Italy, riding on a traditional black gondola gliding through a narrow historic canal. Authentic Venetian pastel buildings with weathered textures, flower-filled balconies, old wooden shutters, aged brickwork, and elegant stone bridges on both sides. Crystal-clear canal water with natural ripples, realistic reflections, and subtle light refractions.

Hair: Natural ash blonde hair styled into a single loose side braid draped over one shoulder, with delicate flyaway strands moving gently in the breeze.

Outfit: Navy blue polka-dot sailor-collar dress made from lightweight cotton fabric with realistic folds and stitching, paired with a small woven straw hat tied gently under the chin with a soft ribbon.

Pose: Sitting naturally on the gondola, leaning slightly over the edge while gently trailing her fingertips through the water, creating realistic ripples and tiny water droplets. Relaxed posture with naturally bent arms and shoulders.

Expression: Wide-eyed childlike wonder, mouth slightly open in awe, genuinely admiring the beautiful Venetian architecture above. Bright sparkling eyes with authentic emotional expression.

Camera: Low water-level perspective from beside the gondola, side-profile composition, showing a beautiful reflection of her face in the canal. Shot on a full-frame camera using an 85mm lens, f/1.8 aperture, ultra-sharp focus on the subject, creamy natural background separation.

Lighting: Soft golden-hour sunlight diffused through the narrow canal, gentle rim light on the hair, realistic global illumination, physically accurate shadows, natural ambient bounce light from the pastel buildings and water surface.

Color Grade: Venetian Pastel aesthetic featuring soft teal water, warm terracotta and cream-colored buildings, muted pastel tones, subtle haze, rich dynamic range, lifelike colors without oversaturation.

Photography Style: National Geographic travel photography meets luxury lifestyle editorial. Hyper-realistic, DSLR-quality, HDR, natural skin texture with visible pores, fine hair detail, realistic fabric texture, physically accurate reflections, high micro-contrast, ray-traced lighting, volumetric atmosphere, extremely detailed, 8K, masterpiece, photorealistic. Ultra photorealistic, authentic travel photography, natural human proportions, physically accurate lighting, realistic water physics, detailed skin texture, ultra fine facial details, realistic eyes, true-to-life colors, cinematic depth of field, award-winning travel photography, 8K, masterpiece.

Prompt No. 2:

2. Hand Trailing Rose Petals

Same woman, identical face, same warm skin tone — cinematic candid portrait on same stone steps, same denim jacket, same urban brownstone background, same dappled tree light and golden atmosphere as reference.

Close low-angle shot from water level, girl releasing flower petals into the canal, petals floating on the ripples, soft reflection of her face beside them, dreamy shallow DOF.

Prompt No. 3:

Laughing Over Shoulder

Same woman, identical face, same warm skin tone — cinematic candid portrait on same stone steps, same denim jacket, same urban brownstone background, same dappled tree light and golden atmosphere as reference.

Rear three-quarter angle, 50mm compression — girl turns back toward camera mid-laugh, one hand holding her straw hat, braid swinging gently, canal buildings blurred behind her.

Prompt No. 4:

Overhead Drone Shot:

Same woman, identical face, same warm skin tone — cinematic candid portrait on same stone steps, same denim jacket, same urban brownstone background, same dappled tree light and golden atmosphere as reference.

Bird's-eye aerial angle looking straight down at the gondola gliding through the canal, girl lying back slightly with arms spread resting on the seat, hat beside her, full canal and bridges visible in frame, gondolier silhouette at the stern.

Prompt No. 5:

Reflection Focus:

Same woman, identical face, same warm skin tone — cinematic candid portrait on same stone steps, same denim jacket, same urban brownstone background, same dappled tree light and golden atmosphere as reference.

Extreme low water-level macro-style angle, camera nearly touching the surface, focus pulled onto her rippling reflection rather than her face directly, she leans forward smiling at her own reflection.

Prompt No. 6:

Feeding the Pigeons:

Same woman, identical face, same warm skin tone — cinematic candid portrait on same stone steps, same denim jacket, same urban brownstone background, same dappled tree light and golden atmosphere as reference.

Three-quarter front angle, slightly elevated from a nearby bridge, girl reaching one hand up as pigeons flutter near a balcony railing above, playful joyful expression, wings partially blurred in motion.

Prompt No. 7:

Candid Side Glance:

Same woman, identical face, same warm skin tone — cinematic candid portrait on same stone steps, same denim jacket, same urban brownstone background, same dappled tree light and golden atmosphere as reference.

35mm lens, eye-level side angle from the canal bank, girl caught mid-turn glancing toward a passing gondola, one hand adjusting her hat ribbon, natural candid motion blur in the background.
